MESSAGE

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dr. A. Jaya
Director

» With an academic and administrative experience of more than three decades I am always passionate about the importance of quality education. As the Director of CDOE I am committed to ensure that all the students enrolled for the degree and certification programmes have a wide learning experience and opportunity that would give them a chance to grow their knowledge and skills. Online learning is an opportunity for learners who cannot take traditional classes. It removes time and geographical constraints, helping students to continue their personal development – as fresh graduates and as experienced employee to improve the qualification.
